

Jesus Stills the Storm

Jesus and His disciples were crossing the Sea of Galilee in a boat when a great storm suddenly arose. The disciples were very frightened because high waves dumped water into their boat faster than they could bail it out, but Jesus was asleep. Finally the disciples woke up Jesus. "We're going to sink! Save us, Jesus!" they probably said. Jesus stood up and said something and the storm suddenly stopped completely.

Use the code in the rectangle to find out what Jesus said and did to stop the storm and write the words on the lines above the code.
