

Who Are You, John?

Directions: The Jewish leaders in Jerusalem asked John the Baptist who he was. Was he the Christ, Elijah, or a prophet? John said, "No." Then they asked him, "Who are you?" What was John's reply? Find out by doing the math in each box. Exchange the number for the word, and you will know how to figure out John's answer.

	straight $144 \div 12$	for $6 + 9$	way $7 \times 2$	am $20 \div 10$	in $3 + 5$
desert $29 - 19$	the $3 \times 3$	Lord $34 - 17$	one $48 \div 8$	the $26 - 13$	Make $55 \div 5$	voice $2 \times 2$
	of $21 - 16$	calling $84 - 77$	I $1 + 0$	the $3 \times 1$	the $96 \div 6$

John's Answer

“

_____

1                      2                      3                      4                      5

_____

6                      7                      8                      9

_____

10                      11                      12

_____

13                      14                      15                      16                      17

”

(John 1:19-23)