

A Sleepyhead

Directions: There is an interesting, short story, only seven verses long, about a young man who fell asleep listening to a sermon. His name was Eutychus. (It sounds like “you-ti-cuss.”) Read about him in Acts 20:6–12 and number the sentences in the order they happened.

- _____ A young man named Eutychus sat in a window.
- _____ Paul and his traveling companions arrived at Troas to preach.
- _____ Paul hurried down and put his arms around Eutychus.
- _____ Paul preached to the people until midnight.
- _____ Eutychus died in the fall.
- _____ They met in an upstairs room.
- _____ Paul told the people, “He’s alive.”
- _____ After he raised Eutychus from the dead, Paul preached until daylight.
- _____ When Eutychus dozed off, he fell out of the third story window.
- _____ As he listened to Paul preach, Eutychus fell asleep.
- _____ The people were comforted that Eutychus was alive.
- _____ On the first day of the week, people gathered together to eat.
